

History of Recommendations and Commendations from NWCCU

Review Year	NWCCU Commendations	NWCCU Recommendations	Year recommendation resolved
1999		Faculty Salaries. Pursue every possible avenue to increase faculty salaries.	2004
		Strategic Planning among Campuses. Elaborate and explain strategic vision for the development of programs across campuses.	2004
2009		Technology Infrastructure. Provide a contemporary enterprise management system.	2011
		Educational Assessment. Continue to enhance and strengthen assessment including all undergraduate, graduate, and professional programs and campuses.	2013
		Communication. Involve all relevant stakeholder groups in matters of institutional transformation and change.	2013
2011	Assessment Progress. Efforts to systematize assessment and engage stakeholders in planning and resource allocation.	Insufficient progress on 2009 Recommendations: Educational Assessment, Communication	2013
	Clarified Indicators of Mission Fulfillment. Clear commitment to maintaining mission-critical levels and to moving toward aspirational goals.	Strategic Planning. Focus objectives, outcomes and indicators on resource and capacity decisions.	2013

		Student Learning Outcomes. Incorporate student learning summary information into evaluation of core theme achievement and mission fulfillment.	In progress
		Indicators of Mission Fulfillment. Clarify relationship between core theme indicators and mission fulfillment.	2013
2013	Culture of Assessment. A transformed culture for assessment of student learning across campuses and graduate programs.	Request for additional attention on 2011 Recommendation 2: Include assessment among the "mission-essential indicators."	In progress
	Communication with Students. Communication concerning undergraduate and graduate programs through fact sheets and four-year course sequences for undergraduates.	Faculty Involvement. Strengthen faculty involvement in assessing student learning outcomes including in online programs and courses.	In progress
		Assessment of Mission Fulfillment. Incorporate student learning outcomes data into evaluation of mission fulfillment.	In Progress